Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kuo Dai et al (US 2004/0090374 A1).

Regarding claim 1, Kuo Dai (Figure 1) discloses an integrated antenna comprising a first radiating metal strip 22 for providing a first resonance; a second radiating metal strip 21 disposed adjacent to the first radiating metal strip and spaced at a distance therefrom for providing a second resonance; a ground plane 10 disposed adjacent to the second radiating metal strip and spaced at a distance therefrom; at least one first connecting metal strip 23 connecting to the first radiating metal strip and the second radiating metal strip; and a second connecting metal strip 23 connecting to the second radiating metal strip and the ground plane.

Regarding claim 3, as applied to claim 1, Figure 1 of Kuo Dai shows that the second radiating metal strip 21 further comprises a feed portion for connecting a signal terminal of a coaxial cable; and the ground plane 10 further comprises a ground portion for connecting a ground terminal of the coaxial cable.

Regarding claim 4, as applied to claim 1, Figure 1 of Kuo Dai shows that the first radiating metal strip 22 is spaced at a distance from the second radiating metal strip 21 and is substantially parallel to the second radiating metal strip.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-7 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 of U.S. Patent No. 6,781,546. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both claim an integrated antenna for portable computer comprising a substrate including at least one connecting portion; a first radiating metal strip spaced at a distance from and substantially parallel to a second radiating metal strip; the second radiating metal strip spaced at a distance from and substantially parallel to a ground plane; at least one first connecting metal strip connecting the first radiating metal strip and the second radiating metal strip; a second connecting metal strip connecting the second radiating metal strip and the ground plane; wherein the first radiating metal strip further comprises a first extending portion extending toward the ground plane, and the second radiating metal strip further comprises a second extending portion extending toward the first radiating metal strip.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Patent 6,812,892 discloses a dual band antenna.
